

15th March 2007 No. 24

IMPORTANT REMINDERS

The school will be closed on Monday 19th March for St. Patrick's Day and on Tuesday 20th March for In-Service.

Lá le Pádraig 2007

Is í seo Seachtain na Gaeilge, seans dúinn ár gcuid teanga a úsáid agus ár gcuid cultúr a cheiliúradh. Lá le Padraig fé mhaise do ghach uile dalta agus do phobal na scoile go léir.

PYJAMA DAY

Thank you to all of the children who dressed up yesterday in order to raise funds for a most deserving charity – Chernobyl Children's Project. The boys and girls of K.S.P. raised €450 on the day. Go raibh míle maith agaibh to léir!

“IS YOUR CHILD CROWDED OUT?”

Public meeting – Newpark Hotel , Kilkenny – Monday 26th March @ 8.00.p.m.

Parents / guardians are invited to attend the above meeting as part of a campaign initiated by the Irish National Teachers Organisation and supported by the National Parents Council and primary school management bodies. Similar meetings are being held throughout the country.

The aim of the campaign is to obtain further mainstream staffing concessions from the Minister for Education & Science for the 2007 /08 school year and subsequent years. The aim of the meeting is to raise public awareness on the 'class size' issue.

P.T.A. NEWS

Congratulations to both Aoife Kennedy (2nd) and Lainey Gilsenan (Junior Infants) who both have new baby sisters, Lily and Millie.

SIBLING ENROLMENT

A reminder to families to fill out pre-enrolment forms for pupils' younger siblings as places are allocated on a strictly first-come-first-served basis. We already have an extremely long pre-enrolment list for Junior Infants class September '08. Pre-enrolment lists for September '09, '10 & '11 are also filling up rapidly!

FAMILY CONTRIBUTION

A reminder to those families who pay by the term that the Spring Term contribution of €32 is now due. We would also welcome payment from any family who have not yet paid their annual contribution (€5). With thanks.
